

Statistics 23, Section 1
August 19, 1999

Most information is available on the Stat 23 Home Page, at the Internet address:

<http://www.stat.unc.edu/faculty/marron/23.html>

For access to this, use your favorite Internet accessible computer, or:

1. Get an "ATNuserid", by:

a. Going to the Internet address:

<http://www.unc.edu/computing/> and clicking on the "Email Accounts" button. Then choose the "CreateUserID" button, and you will be lead through steps requiring your name and UNC PID (Personal Identification number, on your UNC One Card)

b. If you don't have Internet Access, this can be found on machines in Davis Library, or in the MacIntosh labs.

c. If you are really lost, then help with getting an ATNuserid can be found in the basement of Wilson Library.

2. Go to an ATN Lab and Use an Internet Browser. Labs are at:
